OLPH Privacy Statement

OLPH is committed to respecting your privacy, and treats information that you provide as confidential to be used only in connection with the work of the Church (the word "Church" includes OLPH and the Archdiocese of Toronto of which OLPH is part). In general terms, that information is used for communications with you, and for the administrative and other purposes of the Church. When you express an interest in joining in activities of the Church, OLPH will share, only as necessary, your contact information with the persons who are organizing such activities. Otherwise, except as may be required by law, the information you provide will not be shared with other persons who, or organizations which, are not part of the Church. At any time, you may request that we update the personal information that OLPH has on file.
